"MARRIAGE ACT."

WHEREAS Shizuo Hosaki and Toshiko Betty Okada, both of New Denver, Province of British Columbia, were by Licence No. 91964B, duly issued, purported to be joined in matrimony by Rev. Katsuzo Mayeda, of New Denver, British Columbia, at the said City of New Denver, Province of British Columbia, on the 5th day of January, A.D. 1949:

And whereas it appears that the said Rev. Katsuzo Mayeda was not authorized under the provisions of the "Marriage Act" of the Province of British Columbia to perform the marriage ceremony between the said parties:

And whereas evidence, by statutory declaration, has been filed with me under the terms of section 37 of the "Marriage Act":

Now, therefore, I, the undersigned, by virtue of the powers in me vested by the said section 37, do hereby declare the requirements of the "Marriage Act" as to the registration of the said Rev. Katsuzo Mayeda to solemnize marriage to be waived in respect of the marriage ceremony performed by him aforesaid; and I do hereby further, by virtue of the said powers, declare that the said marriage shall be deemed to be, and is and has been from the date of solemnization thereof, a lawful and valid marriage.

LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY.

PRIVATE BILLS.

EXCERPT FROM STANDING ORDERS RELATING TO PRIVATE BILLS.

100. (1) All applications to the Legislative Assembly for Private Bills of any nature whatsoever shall require the publication of a notice clearly and distinctly specifying the nature and object of the application, and when the application refers to any proposed work, indicating sufficiently the location of the work, to be signed by or on behalf of the applicant.

(2) Such notice shall be published in The British Columbia Gazette and once a week in one leading daily newspaper freely circulating in all parts of the Province. The notice in such newspaper to appear on Wednesday of each week.

(3) When the proposed Bill is of such a nature that it may particularly affect one or more electoral districts, the notice shall furthermore be published once a week if possible in some newspaper in every electoral district affected, or if there be no newspaper published therein, then in a newspaper published in the electoral district nearest thereto.

(4) The publication of such notice shall in all cases be continued for a period of four weeks during the interval of time between the close of the next preceding Session and the consideration of the petition.

97. No petition for any Private Bill shall be received by the House after the first ten days of each Session, nor may any Private Bill be presented to the House after the first three weeks of each Session, nor may any report of any Standing or Select Committee upon a Private Bill be received after the first four weeks of each Session, and no motion for the suspension or modification of this Standing Order shall be entertained by the House until the same has been reported on by the Committee on Standing Orders, or after reference made thereof at a previous sitting of the House to the Standing Committees charged with the consideration of Private Bills, who shall report thereon to the House. And if this rule shall be suspended or modified as aforesaid, the promoters of any Private Bill which is presented after the time hereinbefore limited, or for which the petition has been received after the time hereinbefore limited, shall in either case pay double the fees required in respect of such Bill by this rule, unless the House shall order to the contrary.

98. (1) Any person seeking to obtain any Private Bill shall deposit with the Clerk of the House, eight clear days before the opening of the Session:—

- (a) A printed copy of such Bill;
- (b) A copy of the petition to be presented to the House;
- (c) Copies of the notices published, with publication proved by a statutory declaration or affidavit to the satisfaction of the Clerk of the House.

(2) At the time of depositing the Bill and petition the applicant shall also pay to the Clerk of the House the sum of three hundred dollars.

(3) If a copy of the Bill, petition, and notices proved as aforesaid shall not have been so deposited in the hands of the Clerk of the House at least eight clear days before the opening of the Session or if the petition has not been presented to the House within the first ten days of the Session, the amount to be paid to the Clerk shall be six hundred dollars. If the Bill shall not pass second reading one-half of the fees shall be returned.

101. Every petition signed by an agent or attorney in fact shall be accompanied by the authority of such agent or attorney in fact, and the petition shall not be deemed to be filed with the Clerk until this is done.

102. Before any petition praying for leave to bring in a Private Bill for the erection of a toll-bridge is received by the House, the person or persons intending to petition for such Bill shall, upon giving the notice prescribed by Standing Order 100, also at the same time and in the same manner give notice of the rates which they intend to ask, the extent of the privilege, the height of the arches, the interval between the abutments or piers for the passage of rafts or vessels, and mentioning also whether they intend to erect a drawbridge or not, and the dimensions of the same.

103. (1) All Private Bills for Acts of incorporation shall be so framed as to incorporate by reference to the clauses of the general Acts relating to the details to be provided for by such Bills: Special grounds shall be established for any proposed departure from this principle, or for the introduction of other provisions as to such details, and a note shall be appended to the Bill indicating the provisions thereof in which the general Act is proposed to be departed from. Bills which are not framed in accordance with this Standing Order shall be recast by the promoters and reprinted at their expense before any Committee passes upon the clauses.

(2) Every Bill for an Act of incorporation, where a form of model Bill has been adopted, shall be drawn in accordance with the model Bill (copies of model Bills may be obtained from the Clerk of the House). Any provisions contained in any such Bill which are not in accord with the model Bill shall be inserted between brackets or underlined, and shall be so printed.

(3) Any exceptional provisions that it may be proposed to insert in any Bill shall be clearly specified in the notice of application for same.

107. All Private Bills shall be prepared by the parties applying for the same, and printed in small-pica type, twenty-six ems by fifty ems, on good paper, in imperial octavo form, each page when folded measuring 10¾ inches by 7½ inches. There shall be a marginal number every fifth line of each page; the numbering of the lines is not to run on through the Bill, but the lines of each page are to be numbered separately. Three hundred copies of each Bill shall be deposited with the Clerk of the House immediately before the first reading. If amendments are made to any Bill during its progress before the Committee on Private Bills, or through the House, such Bill shall be reprinted by the promoters thereof.

In the case of Bills to incorporate companies, in addition to the fee of $300 mentioned in Rule 98, fees calculated on the capital of the company are payable at the same time. Further particulars can be had on application to the undersigned.

All cheques in payment of fees must be certified.

Dated January 5th, 1949.

E. K. DEBECK,
Clerk, Legislative Assembly.

(c) To acquire by purchase or otherwise, to own, control, and hold water powers, gas, oil, and all other powers and substances necessary and requisite for the development and production of light, heat, and power, and all franchises, appurtenances, and privileges appertaining thereto or necessary for the full exercise and enjoyment thereof, and to store, dam, manufacture, generate, utilize, transmit, and distribute the same for the purposes of the Company, and to supply, contract for, and furnish or otherwise dispose thereof to public and private consumers, and to build, construct, and maintain flumes, viaducts, reservoirs, dams, culverts, subways, aqueducts, water-works, gas and sewer systems, irrigation works, power plants, power stations, hydraulic works, transmission lines, and all other works, buildings, equipment, machinery, appliances, and devices, and all other materials, substances, and means for the development, production, supply, and use of light, heat, and power, and to install, own, equip, maintain, and operate over lands owned or controlled by the Company a telephone and telegraph system, provided always that the powers granted under this clause, in so far as those relate to the supply of light, heat, and power beyond the Company's own lands and premises, shall be subject to all Dominion, Provincial, and municipal laws and regulations in that behalf, and shall be exercised accordingly:

(d) To construct, purchase, lease, or otherwise acquire, carry on, and maintain any transportation system and means of transportation, communication, conveyance, or otherwise required by the Company on or in sea, earth, or air for its purpose and to operate the same by such means or motive power as the Company may deem necessary, subject to and over such lands, rights, areas, or otherwise as the Company may be entitled to or possess, and to enter into contracts with any person or company as to interchange of traffic, joint working or otherwise as may seem expedient:

(e) To purchase or otherwise acquire, sell, dispose of, and deal in property of all kinds and any estate and interest therein and in particular lands, business concerns, and undertakings, mortgages, charges, annuities, option, licences, securities, concessions, produce, policies, book-debts, choses in action and claims against any property, person, or company, and to carry on any business concern or undertaking acquired by the Company:

(f) To establish and finance companies for the promotion, prosecution, or execution of undertakings, works, projects, or enterprises similar in whole or in part to those of the Company, whether of a public or private character, and to acquire and dispose of shares, securities, and interests of and in any such companies:

(g) To prosecute and execute directly or by contribution or other assistance any undertakings, works, projects, businesses, or enterprises in which, or for the prosecution whereof, or on the security whereof, or of any profits or emoluments derivable therefrom, the Company shall have invested money, embarked capital, or engaged its credit, and to conduct and carry on or liquidate and wind up any such undertakings, projects, businesses, or enterprises:

(h) To act as employee, agent, or manager of any person, firm, or corporation with which the Company may be associated or in which it may be interested:

(i) To acquire by subscription, purchase, or otherwise and to accept and take, hold, or sell shares or stocks in any company, society, or undertaking, whether the Company shall have invested money therein or shall have been acquired by or become associated with the Company or otherwise:

(j) To make or concur or assist in making all payments and financial arrangements in relation to companies, corporate and other bodies or associations, concerns, and undertakings having business relations with the Company or otherwise, and to underwrite, subscribe for, purchase, hold, sell, or dispose of bonds, debentures, obligations, or securities in any such companies, associations, concerns, and undertakings, and to guarantee, subject to the "Insurance Act," or assist in the guarantee of the payment of any moneys, dividends, or interest on the bonds, debentures, obligations, or security of any such and to pay any commissions, brokerages, indemnities, or other charges and legal or other expenses incidental thereto:

(k) To invest the moneys of the Company not immediately required in such manner as the directors may from time to time determine:

(l) To consolidate or amalgamate with any other company having objects similar in whole or in part to those of this Company:

(m) To pay the expenses of and preliminary and incidental to the formation, establishment, and registration of the Company:

(n) To pay for any lands, business, property, rights, privileges, and concessions acquired or agreed to be acquired by the Company, and generally to satisfy any payment or obligation of the Company by the issue of shares of this or any other company credited as fully or partly paid up, or of debentures or other securities of this or any other company credited as fully or partly paid up:

(o) To distribute any of the assets of the Company amongst the shareholders thereof in specie:

(p) To apply for, purchase, or otherwise acquire any patent, brevets d'invention, licences, concessions, and the like, conferring any exclusive or non-exclusive limit or right to use or any secret or other information as to any invention which may seem capable of being used for any purposes of the Company or the acquisition of which may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to benefit the Company and to use, exercise, develop, or grant licences in respect of or otherwise to account the property, rights, or information so required:

(q) To enter into partnership or into any arrangements for sharing profits, union of interests, co-operation, joint adventure, reciprocal concession, or otherwise with any person or company carrying on, engaged in, or about to carry on or engage in any business or transaction which this Company is authorized to carry on or engage in, or any business or transaction capable of being conducted so as, directly or indirectly, to benefit this Company and to lend money to, guarantee the contracts of, or otherwise assist any such person or company, and to take and otherwise acquire shares and securities of any such company and to sell, hold, reissue, with or without guarantee or otherwise deal with the same:

(r) To enter into any arrangements with any governments or other authorities, supreme, municipal, local, or otherwise that may seem conducive to the Company's objects or any of them, and to obtain from any such government or authority any rights, privileges, or concessions that the Company may think it desirable to obtain, and to carry out, exercise, and comply with any such arrangement, rights, privileges, or concessions:

(s) To establish and support or aid in the establishment and support of associations, institutions, funds, trusts, and conveniences calculated to benefit employees or ex-employees of the Company or its predecessors in business or to dependents or connections of such persons and to grant pensions and allowances and to make payments toward insurance and to subscribe or guarantee money for charitable or benevolent objects or for any exhibition or for any public, general, or useful object:

(t) To promote any company or companies for the purpose of acquiring all or any of the property and liabilities of this Company or for any other purpose which may seem directly or indirectly calculated to benefit this Company:

(u) To borrow or raise or secure the payment of money in such manner as the Company shall think fit, and particularly by the issue of debenture or debenture stock, perpetual or otherwise, charged upon all or any of the Company's property both present and future, including its uncalled capital and to purchase, redeem, or pay off any such securities:

(v) To draw, make, accept, endorse, discount, execute, and issue promissory notes, bills of exchange, bills of lading, warrants, debentures, and other negotiable or transferable instruments:

(w) To undertake and execute any trusts subject to the "Trust Companies Act," the undertaking whereof seems desirable and either gratuitously or otherwise:

(x) To adopt such means of making known the products and services of the Company as may seem expedient and particularly by advertising by the press, by circulars, by purchase and exhibition of works of art or interest, by publication of books and periodicals, and by granting prizes, rewards, and donations:

(y) To obtain any Provincial order or Act of Parliament or Legislative Assembly for enabling the Company to carry any of its objects into effect or for effecting any modification of the Company's constitution or for any other purpose which may seem expedient and to oppose any proceedings or applications which may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to prejudice the Company's interests:

(z) To procure the Company to be registered or recognized in any foreign country or place or in any province of Canada or elsewhere abroad:

(aa) To do all or any of the above things in any part of the world and as principals, agents, contractors, trustees, or otherwise and by or through trustees, agents, or otherwise, and either alone or in conjunction with others.

I HEREBY CERTIFY that "Christian Conference and Training Center" has this day been incorporated as a Society under the "Societies Act."

The locality in which the operations of the Society will be chiefly carried on is White Rock, in the Province of British Columbia.

Given under my hand and seal of office at Victoria, Province of British Columbia, this thirteenth day of April, one thousand nine hundred and forty-nine.

[L.S.] S. W. TAYLOR,
Registrar of Companies.

The objects of the Society are:—

(a) To establish, maintain, and carry on a training centre or centres, college or colleges, school or schools, institution or institutions for the training and teaching of students in the Bible:

(b) To promote the cause of world-wide Interdenominational Faith Missions and for the deepening of the spiritual life of the believer, to the glory of God and the exaltation of the Name of our Lord Jesus Christ:

(c) To care for the physical, educational, and spiritual welfare of underprivileged children, including the maintenance and operation of boarding and educational schools or homes, subject to the provisions of any law of the Province of British Columbia or of the Dominion of Canada in regard thereto:

(d) To teach and preach the Bible and to require of its members, officers, and teachers belief in the following articles of creed:—

(1) In the triune God—Father, Son, and Holy Spirit—in accordance with the Holy Scriptures and the apostolic faith:

(2) That the Bible is the inspired Word of God and the revelation of His will and that it is the only guide for faith, doctrine, and holy living:

(3) That man was created in the image of God, but through the fall lost this image and in consequence all have become sinners and are guilty in the sight of God:

(4) In the teaching of the Bible in regard to eternal salvation and eternal damnation:

(5) That Jesus Christ is the Atoner for the sins of the world, and that free salvation is offered to everyone who "repenteth and believeth in Him":

(6) That man without regeneration has no fellowship with God:

(7) That all who are born of the Spirit of God are members of the invisible Church of Christ on earth, and that it is pleasing to God and profitable to the individual to unite with a Church assembly for mutual fellowship in the word, prayer, and the Lord's Supper:

(8) That all men shall, before Christ, give an account of their deeds and that the righteous shall inherit eternal life and the unrighteous shall depart into eternal damnation:

(9) In the imminent personal return of our Lord Jesus Christ for His own and the establishment of His Kingdom on earth:

(10) In the carrying out of the Great Commission of our Lord Jesus Christ as recorded in Matt. 28: 19 & 20, Mark 16: 15:

(11) And to teach such other courses of studies as the Society or its directors may deem necessary to equip the students of the Society for Bible teaching, preaching, or other Christian work,—

(c) To print, publish, and circulate the Bible and other Christian literature:

(f) To acquire by purchase or otherwise and to maintain, hold, lease, or sell real and personal property for the purposes of the Society and to erect and maintain colleges, centres of learning, schools, chapels, residences, and boarding places for students, faculty, and managements, or such other buildings as may be necessary or advisable to acquire, erect, construct, or maintain for the work of the Society:

(g) To do all things which are necessary, incidental, or conducive to the attainment of or the carrying out of the objects of the Society. 1561-ap28

DEPARTMENT OF THE ATTORNEY-GENERAL.

"SUPREME COURT ACT."

HIS HONOUR the Lieutenant-Governor in Council has been pleased to order that the "Rules of Court relating to the Custody, Care, and Disposal of Money in Court and of Suitors' Funds, and the Investment of Money in Court," made by Order in Council No. 2910, approved the 21st day of December, 1948, and published in the Gazette of December 30th, 1948, at page 3597, as amended by Order in Council No. 209, approved the 29th day of January, 1949, be rescinded.

And that pursuant to the provisions of section 34 of the "Supreme Court Act" and all other powers thereunto enabling, the following Rules of Court be made, to be known as "Rules of Court relating to the Custody, Care, and Disposal of Money in Court and of Suitors' Funds, and the Investment of Money in Court":—

RULES OF COURT RELATING TO THE CUSTODY, CARE, AND DISPOSAL OF MONEY IN COURT AND OF SUITORS' FUNDS, AND THE INVESTMENT OF MONEY IN COURT.

1. In these rules the following words shall have the several meanings assigned to them, namely:—

"Bank" means the bank designated by the Minister of Finance:

"Funds" means any money that has been paid into or deposited in Court, except money paid:—

(a) Under the "Attachment of Debts Act":

(b) Under the "Execution Act":

(c) Under the "Workmen's Compensation Act":

(d) Under Items 26 and 29, Schedule No. 3 of Appendix M to the "Supreme Court Rules, 1943":

(e) For security for costs:

(f) In satisfaction of a claim:

(g) For bail:

"Registrar" means the Registrar or District Registrar of the Supreme Court into whose registry the funds or securities have been paid:

"Securities" means any government bonds, or other securities, including stocks and shares paid into or deposited in Court.

2. All funds shall forthwith be deposited by the Registrar in the bank and shall thereupon be paid by the Registrar to the Minister of Finance, accompanied by a certified copy of the order directing payment in, or if the funds have been paid into Court without an order with a statement showing the particulars of the payment in.

Funds to be paid into bank and to Minister of Finance.

3. All securities forthwith after deposit in Court shall be transmitted by registered mail and insured to the extent of the par value of the securities, or shall be transmitted through a chartered bank by the Registrar to the Minister of Finance, together with a certified copy of the order directing payment or deposit in Court if any, and if the securities have been deposited without an order with a statement showing the particulars of the payment in.

Securities to be forwarded to Minister of Finance.

4. Subject to the provisions of the "Unclaimed Money Deposits Act" and to the following rules, all funds and securities shall be invested, exchanged, sold, held, delivered, or paid out from time to time upon authority of an order of a Court or Judge duly entered, upon production of a certified copy of the order countersigned in each case by the Registrar, and shall be paid or delivered to such person or persons named in the order.

Investment and dealing with funds
and securities.

5. The Minister of Finance may without any order in that behalf take the necessary steps to effect the conversion of any security, the conversion of which is compulsory upon the holders under any Statute, or order of the Court, or any scheme of arrangement or sale duly effected or sanctioned under the provisions of any Statute.

Conversion of securities.

6. Where an order directs payment out of a fund in Court of any costs directed to be taxed by the Registrar, the Registrar shall forward to the Minister of Finance a certified copy of the order, together with a certificate showing the costs that have been taxed and the full name and address of the person to whom such costs are payable.

Payment out of costs.

7. All balances to the credit of any cause or matter when not invested pursuant to an order of a Court or Judge shall draw interest at the rate of one per centum per annum from the first day of the third month after payment into Court up to the first day of the month during which the moneys are paid out, but no interest shall be paid in respect of fractions of a month; provided that where moneys are paid into Court for the benefit of an infant the rate shall be not less than two and three-quarters per centum per annum, and provided further that where money be invested in certain securities, the money shall be so invested by the Minister of Finance, and the interest from the securities credited to the infant and paid out from time to time as directed by the order.

Interest.

8. The Minister of Finance may, for the purpose of earning the interest allowances set out in Rule 7, from time to time make general investments in securities of the Dominion or of the Province, or in securities the principal and interest of which are guaranteed by the Government of the Dominion or of the Province, not exceeding the aggregate of all balances not already specifically invested by order of the Court or a Judge, and may whenever necessary or expedient convert same into money.

Investment.

9. The interest or income payable on funds or securities shall be collected by the Minister of Finance and paid out by him to the party entitled thereto, and where the security is registered as to principal and interest in the name

Interest collected by Minister of Finance.

- of the Registrar, the acceptance by and acknowledgment of the Minister of Finance shall be deemed to be a full and sufficient discharge for payment thereof.
- Effect of order. 10. Where by any judgment or order of a Court or Judge the Registrar is directed to invest, deal with, deliver, or pay out any funds or security, the judgment or order shall mean a direction to the Minister of Finance to that effect.
- Deposit of moneys in Court and payment out. 11. Moneys not within the definition of funds shall be deposited by the Registrar in the bank and paid out in accordance with the existing practice of the Court; provided that if the moneys are in the bank after the expiration of one year from the date of the deposit, they shall be considered as funds and dealt with as such.
- Application. 12. These rules shall apply to:—
(a) All moneys heretofore or hereafter paid into Court and whether or not the same have been invested in securities pursuant to an order of the Court or a Judge in that behalf;
(b) All securities heretofore or hereafter deposited in Court pursuant to Rules of Court or any Statute in that behalf; and
(c) Mutatis mutandis funds and securities paid into any County Court in the Province, except in the matter of payment of interest under Rule 7.
- Remission of fee. 13. Where under these rules the Registrar is required to forward to the Minister of Finance a certificate or a certified copy of a judgment or order of a Court or Judge, no fee shall be payable in respect of such certificate or certified copy.
